[From the San Francisco Evening Journal.]

THE GOLD MINES OF PERU.

CARABAYA.

An exceedingly interesting work has just been published by this government, entitled "Explorations of the Valley of the Amazon, by Lieutenant Herndon, of the United States Navy." This survey was undertaken under Executive orders, and has been most successful in its results. Lieutenant Herndon started from Lima on the Pacific coast, crossed the Andes to Tarma, thence to the head waters of the Rio Huallaga, down that river to the Amazon, and down the Amazon to the sea. His work abounds with valuable information, not the least interesting of which is his description of the history and progress of the Gold Mines in the province of CARABAYA, of which we herewith give extracts. It may be as well to state in the commencement of this article, that this province of Carabaya is in the southern portion of Peru, to the north and east of Cuzco.

"The defeated followers of Almagro, who were routed at the battle of Salmas, near Cuzco, on the 26th April, 1538, flying before the face of the still victorious Pizarro, found to the eastward of Cuzco, a country answering in some degree to the description of the long sought El Eorado. They penetrated into the valleys of Carabaya, and found there washings of gold of great value. They subjugated the Indians, built the towns of San Juan del Oro, San Gaban, Sandia, &c., and sent large quantities of gold to Spain. On one occasion they sent a mass of gold in the shape of an ox's head, and of the weight of two hundred pounds, as a present to Charles V. The Emperor, in acknowledgment, gave the title of "Royal City" to the town of San Juan del Oro, and ennobled its inhabitants. The Indians, however, in the course of time revolted, murdered their oppressors and destroyed their towns. Up to the last three years this has been a sealed country to the white man. In the month of June, 1849, two brothers named Poblete, seeking Peruvian bark in the valleys of Carabaya, discovered grains or pits, (pepitas) of gold in the gulch of Challuhuma. They were soon joined by other hunters of bark; news spread in the province; companies were formed; and petitions made to the Board of Miners for titles; but quarrels soon arose about priority of discovery and rights, and the paths were broken up, and bridges and rafts for crossing the rivers destroyed, so that up to the time of my information, little has been done in gathering the gold. It appears from an official letter of Pablo Pimentel, sub prefect of the province of Carabaya, in answer to certain questions propounded to him by the Treasury Department, that the mining district is situated in the valleys to the north and east of Crucero, the capital of the province, and is reached from that place by the following routes and distance: (It will be as well to premise that Crucero is situated in about latitude 14 south, and longitude 74 west of Greenwich.) To reach it by the nearest route from the Pacific coast, one should land at Islay, and traveling on horseback through the cities of Arequipa and Puno, he will arrive at Crucero, by easy stages of fifteen miles a day, in about twenty days. From Crucero, the route running to the eastward, and crossing the Cordillera at probably its highest and most difficult pass, conducts the traveler to the small and abandoned village of Phara, forty-two miles from Crucero. Here he puts foot to the ground, and travels seventy-two miles, (four days journey,) to the banks of the great river Guariguari, although his provisions and implements may be carried to this point on mules. He crosses this river on a perilous swinging bridge, called Oroya, and makes his way thirty miles further towards the north without any broken track, save an occasional one made by the bark hunters. This brings him to Challuhuma. This valley or "gulch," is from thirty to thirty-six miles long from the top of the mountains, whence descend the three small torrents which form the auriferous stream called Challuhuma, to its entrance into the Guariguari; but it is calculated that only about a fifth part of this can be worked, as the other four parts are hemmed in by precipitous rocks on each side; and to turn the course of the river at these parts, so as to get at its bed, would be about as easy a task as to remove the Andes. Pimentel supposes that from the time of the discovery, in June, to the date of his letter in November, about one hundred thousand dollars had been collected, but that the best parts had been worked, and that such success was no longer to be looked for. He says, moreover, that the difficulty of obtaining provisions and supplies is very great, from the small number of persons engaged in agriculture, the general laziness of the people, and the difficulty of transportation.

It is quite evident that Pimentel felt disposed to throw difficulties in the way, and to distract attention from Challuhuma by dwelling upon the undiscovered riches in other valleys, and the great vegetable wealth of the country a little to the eastward of it. Other accounts from this district give a different version, and represent Pimentel as a party in one of the mining companies, and interested in keeping secret the true state of affairs. The quarrel on this subject ran very high in the department of Puno, and even the motives and conduct of General Deusta, then prefect of the department, and now governor of the "Provincia Littoral" of Callao—a man of the very highest standing and character in his country—were impugned. He vindicated his reputation in a very spirited letter to the Secretary of State, for the Treasery Department, demanding to be relieved, and receiving an apologetic reply from the government. It appears, from some notices of this country, written by Manuel Hurtado, a citizen of Puno, that the province of Carabaya has an extent of one hundred and eighty miles, from north to south, rendered more to the traveler who wishes to pass over its whole length, on account of his having to cross the spurs of the mountains, which divide the whole country into valleys, having auriferous streams; for, from Cuia to Quica, there are eighteen miles; to Sandia, forty-two; to Cuyo-cuyo, twelve; to Patambuco, eighteen; to Phara, thirty-six; to Uricayas, forty-five; to Coasa, eighteen; to Thiata, thirty; to Ayapata, eighteen; to Ollachea, forty-two; and to Corani, eighteen; making three hundred and seven miles. All these villages, except the last, are in the line of the Montana, or wooded mountains. The villages of Macusani and Crucero are on the other side of the Cordillera. The population of the province is thirty thousand souls, over and above strangers, who come to collect the gold and cascari la.

According to the notices acquired from different persons, and particularly from Pimentel and the Pobletes, we know that the gold taken from Challahuma, from the middle of June to September, amounts to seven hundred pounds, of which the Pobletes hold three, and the balance has been sold by various individuals in the fairs and markets of Azangaro, Tangazuca, and Crucero, over and above the many pounds that have been sent for sale to Puno and Arequipa, and that which the Indians indubitably hold, seeing that they only sell enough to purchase themselves necessaries; although one has been known to sell to the value of six hundred dollars. About the end of September, the associates of the company styled "Descubridora" destroyed the hanging bridges, the rafts, and even some parts of the road, saying that in Challuhuma there is nothing, and advising all to return to their houses. This rather gave encouragement to new explorers, who plunged into the woods where human foot had never trodden, and crossing the great river on temporary oroyas, (hanging bridges,) many persons settled themselves in Challuhuma, whence they have been taking gold without its being known how much has been collected in the month and a half which has intervened. It is worthy of note that these people and the Pobletes have very imperfect means of extracting the gold, being reduced to what they call "chichiquear," which is, to place earth in a trough, wash it a little while in the stream, and collect the gold that has settled; which may be one, two, or more ounces, according to the fortune of the washer. They repeat this operation as many times a day as their strength will permit. On one occasion the sub-prefect, Pimentel, obtained from one trough-full twenty odd ounces of gold. No trough-full yields less than one ounce. There seems some exaggeration in this account; but an anonymous publication from Puno, on this subject of Carabaya, goes beyond this. It says:

"In the year 1713, a mine of silver was discovered in a hill called Uncuntayo, among the heights of Ollachea, which gave more than four thousand marks to caxon. (Six marks to the caxon is a paying yield in the Cerro Pasco silver mines.) It has been always known that much gold existed in all the ravines of the district of Phara, and the proof is the discovery of it, in the present year, at the points called Beimisamayo, Rio Challuhuma, and Acomayo, from which 'placers' it is certain that even in this short time many arrobas (twenty five pounds,) of fine gold, in the shape of melon seeds, have been taken and seen in Puno, Arequipa, &c. The sight of this gold, and the conviction which is entertained of the existence of abundance of this metal, have awakened the avarice of all, and are attracting to Carabaya a concurrence of the people of the departments of La Paz, Puno, Arequipa, and Cuzco. The work must cease, on account of the rains, towards the end of October; but from May onward we shall have growing up there a society heterogeneous, avaricious, and needing authorities and judges, that the placers may be appointed among the workers according to law; that property may be secured; and that those disorders which may be expected to grow out of such a state of affairs may be checked, for the sub-prefect, besides being a principal associate in the companies for collecting gold and cascarilla, has not the weight of character necessary in these cases. Moreover, the person who directs in mining matters (Diputado de Mineria,) resides in Puno, two hundred miles from the point whence the gold is extracted. The companies endeavor by every means in their power, to hide the riches which exist in the already discovered mines, and to throw difficulties in the way of getting there; but we know that every trough full of the earth which is washed gives six ounces and upwards, and that there are only three days on horseback from Phara to the banks of the great river (which may be crossed by an oroya, or on rafts,) and to the mines is only one day on foot. The climate of the greater part of the Montana of Carabaya is entirely healthy, and of an endurable heat. Its lands are so rich that they give three crops a year, and produce fine coca, and coffee that rivals that of Mocha, superior cacao, potatoes, maiz, fruits, rasins of every kind, the vanilla, superior and most abundant woods, and the cascarilla called calisaya, &c., &c. The savages in tribes of more than two hundred souls, live scattered about sixty or ninety miles to the eastward of the placers. It is necessary to adopt some measurers of precaution to anticipate attacks which they would be likely to make on small parties.

We are convinced that these are the mines whose reported richness has reached California. The Peruvian Government anticipating doubtless the excitement and trouble that would ensue by a general stampede for these rich diggings, by people from foreign countries, have taken pains not to propagate any reports respecting them in their official journals. That the eastern slope of the cordilleras is rich in minerals, is at this present day amply confirmed,—but the Indians are hostile and the route dangerous. Lieutenant Herndon says:

"The difficulties of penetrating into these new countries where the path is to be broken for the first time, can only be conceived by one who has traveled over the roads already trodden. The broken and precipitous mountain track—the deep morass—the thick tangled forest—the danger from the Indians, wild beasts and reptiles—the scarcity of provisions—the exposure to the almost appalling rains—and the navigation of the impetuous and rock-obstructed river, threatening at every moment shipwreck to the frail canoe—form obstacles that might daunt any heart but that of the gold hunter."

GOOD.—"Father, what does a printer live on?"

"Why, my child?"

"Because you said you hadn't paid him for three years, and still take the paper."

"Wife, spank that child."

ORIGINAL DEFECTIVE

MARIPOSA CHRONICLE.

WHITAGRE & GOULD, EDITORS.

MARIPOSA:

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 3, 1854.

☞ MR. PAUL C. NILES, Mail Carrier between this place and Sonora, is hereby authorized to receive any advertisements, Job work, subscriptions, or moneys intended for the Mariposa Chronicle.

COUNTY COURT.—This Court will not sit until after the adjournment of the District Court, which holds its sessions on the 1st Monday of March.

APPOINTMENT.—Our talented and enterprising townsman, E. EDWARDS HEWITT, has been appointed Collector of the Customs of Pecheco's Pass. This is a well merited compliment, and we wish our clever friend unbounded success.

"MINERO" and "S. R." have been unavoidably crowded out, but will appear next week.

ADAMS & Co.—Through their agent, Mr. Gardner at this place, we have received numerous express favors during the past week.

WELLS, FARGO & Co.—We omitted giving this house credit last week for full files of the New York Herald, from January 6th to January 22d. They will accept our thanks for numerous favors during the past week. Their agent "Chips," at Stockton, keeps us well posted with interior and Sacramento papers.

SHERLOCK'S.—Our accounts from this place are quite gratifying. New claims have been opened, old ones more extensively worked, and all are paying. We have the particulars of one Company, Messrs. Arnold & Co., who are averaging $12 a day to the hand. We have reports of other companies making more than this.

THE FOUNTAIN HEAD.—It will be seen by an advertisement in another column, that our old friend Winn does not intend to be out done by any establishment in San Francisco. It is altogether unnecessary to give the "Fountain Head," or "Branch" one word of praise. All who have ever tried either, can testify to the superior qualities of both.

DEPARTURE.—MR. C. D. O'SULLIVAN of the firm of Sullivan & Cashman, of this place, left on the steamer of the 1st, on a tour to the Atlantic States and Europe. Mr. Sullivan is one of our oldest merchants, and now has in view, in his present trip, the establishment of a new Commercial house in San Francisco, which will be one of the heaviest business houses in this State. A pleasant trip and speedy return, say we.

"SCRIBBLER."—We will be glad to hear from you as often as convenient, and will have a bundle of the Chronicle left at Hammat & Simpson's store, who are authorized to receive subscriptions.

SERVED RIGHT.—Thomas Edwards was sent to the County Jail by Justice Washburn, for three months, for beating his wife. We wish our law-makers would make it capital punishment for a man to beat his wife, we think in that case there would be but little of this species of amusement going on.

QUARTZ SPECULATIONS.—A short time since, Messrs. Turner & Co. sold the loose quartz on the surface, from their claim at Guadalupe, for $100, and the parties purchasing have taken out of the same $3,000, according to their own statement; but by many it is supposed they have made much more.

MISSOURI GULCH.—Messrs Jenkins & Co. are now engaged in sluicing the dirt about their famous claim, and are averaging over an ounce a day to the man out of dirt, which it was supposed last summer would not pay for working. Other claims are being worked on the same gulch, which are yielding large amounts.

AGUA FRIO.—The mining news from this place is of the old sort, since the rain. Messrs. Roland, Lamaston & Co., having but little to do one day last week, started out prospecting in the street, and are now working a claim in Main street, that is paying them $20 to $28 per day to the man. Accounts from Upper Agua Frio are quite encouraging. Miners are making on an average, about $10 per day to the man.

The vote polled for Justice of the Peace in Township No. 1, at the election on the 18th of February, stood as follows:

Samuel H. P. Ross, 48; Thomas J. Edwards, 31; G. W. King, 31; J. S. Beaty, 15; H. Ostrander, 9; Thomas Lawson, 21.

QUARTZ STOCK IN ENGLAND.—Mr. McCabe of Agua Frio, has politely furnished us with copies of the Dublin Telegraph, and the London Mining Journal. From the Journal we make the following quotations of Quartz Stock in England:

Shares.	Paid.	Last Prices.	Bu'nss Done.
100000 Agua Fria	1	¾ 1 pm	1⅛
100000 Anglo California	½	⅜ d ⅝ pm	—
80000 Ave Maria	1	¾ ⅞dis	—
210000 Carson's Creek	⅜	¾ d par	⅝
100000 Mariquita	1	¾ d par	⅞
300000 Nouveau Monde	1	¾ ⅝pm	1⅛
100000 West Mariposa	1	⅞ ⅝dis	⅝ ¾

We hear of two deaths at Colorada the past week, but have been unable to learn the names of the deceased.

We think it would be advisable for the Commissioner having charge of Main street, to improve it a little, that is, if it would not be too much trouble.

The first shipment of gold dust to England, by the Agua Frio Quartz Company, was made on last Saturday.

A small row occurred at Agua Frio on Sunday. No one hurt.

MERCED COUNTY.

We were in hopes that ere this time, this unjust, iniquitous scheme of a few political quacks would have had its quietus. It is not so. But why our Legislators have not taken hold of this matter, and given it its death blow, we are unable to say. How far distant is the time when political humbuggery shall cease to rule in this country? When our politicians will respect the will of their constituents, and brawlers of all new and outlandish measures will receive their just dues, by being ejected from society.

We are sorry to have to refer to this subject again; but the disposition of a few who have neither interest, parcel or part to lose—who do not pay taxes enough to make it an object for our tax Collector to go after them for collection—who have neither money or political honesty to lose, but if the new County should be erected, have, in their own estimation, some small office to gain. These are the strenuous advocates of the new County project; these are the men who would, like Judas, sell their maker for a few pieces of silver. This must appear plain to every man who has taken the pains to examine into this matter, and consider the number of offices to be filled in the new County.

By a communication in the Stockton Post, we are accused of going in for the "loaves and fishes." Will little Thunder just show his hand? and if he does, we'll bet the County Clerk's office against the Sheriff's (of the would be new County,) that at the first election, he would be a candidate for office.

Such has been the ill fortune of California generally, broken down and worn out politicians, have flocked to her fair shores in search of the spoils of office, without paying the semblance of regard to the interests of the people, or welfare of the State. They look upon California as the El Dorado of political riches, and instigated by the hope of that success which was denied them where they were known, they pitch in, not regarding the means by which they accomplish their selfish ends, and unscrupulously sacrifice the interests of their constituents to the shrine of their idolatry.

A few would be large dogs of the tan-yard, are urging the erection of a new County, whose citizens are unknown to them, and prompted by a characteristic animal sagacity, they hope from this fact, they shall be enabled to ride the big horse of office, aided by the keen spurs of cupidity.

These hangers-on, like Wilkins Macorber, are constantly on the alert, watching for something to "turn up," and now they think they have a bait, at which to bite, and are urging a measure for the sole purpose of political plunder. And how long will our good citizens permit these harpies to prey upon their dearests interests? Will they never remove the scales from their eyes, and see the infamous deception practised upon them?

[COMMUNICATED.]

AN ACT CONCERNING NOTARIES PUBLIC—Passed April 30, 1853. See compiled Statutes of California, page 903:

Sec. 8. Each Notary Public shall provide a Notarial Seal, with which he shall authenticate all his official acts, on which seal shall be engraved the arms of this State, and the name of the County for which he is commissioned, which seal, together with the register and official documents, shall not be liable to be seized on by any execution; and in case of the death or removal of said Notary Public, the aforesaid register and official documents shall be lodged in the office of the County Recorder of his county, for the use of his successor in office.

From the above it will be seen that a Notary, to be legal, shall provide a seal. Some gentlemen, however, may urge that the language of the Statute is merely directory, but I contend it is imperative, and as well may they urge that the portion of the law requiring a Notary to be commissioned, to give bond, take the oath of office &c., is merely directory. Upon examination of the records, I find the Governor has commissioned five Notaries for Mariposa County, and but one has a seal, as provided by law, and is the only one, before whom an acknowledgment made, or any other act performed is legal.

And I would advise the public to beware of any man who represents himself as a Notary, unless he exhibits, not only his commission with oath of office, endorsed thereon, but his seal of office, as provided in Sec. 8, as above. BOB.

The following is an extract from a private letter, dated Millerton, Feb. 28, 1854 to a gentleman in this place:

"Cherokee Bob," 'Tom Mitchner,' and another man—an American—have just been arrested at this place, on the charge of horse stealing. They were overtaken here by Mr. John Kellett and a Mr. Martin, from Hornitas. The animals stolen were one horse belonging to Mr. Kellett, and a mule belonging to a Chinaman. From what has occurred during the past two or three days, I fear that all the rowdies of the county are centreing here. If you have any use for them at Mariposa, send down four officials and take them away, for we do not want any additions of that kind here."

THE REMOVAL OF THE CAPITAL.—We perceive that the Legisluture have considered, in their wisdom, that it was advisable to change the scene of their labors and have consequently removed to Sacramento city.

We notice Mr. Herbert's appreciation of this removal project, and the suitability of Sacramento city for the State Capital Mr. H. is an energetic, conscientious representative, and enjoys the confidence of his constituents; the same we can say of Mr. Henry.

[EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27, 1854.

Rain! rain!! rain!!! Down it comes, and down it is likely to come for the next month. The "weather clerk" has opened out in real '49 fashion, promising withal that those interested will yet have ample opportunity to discover the identity of our present season. Since last Thursday, the flood-gates above have been constantly open—no cessation—no "easing off," until at the present writing, the San Franciscans are enjoying about as damp a time as ever came within the range of their experience. The papers appear almost as watery and gloomy as the sky, but endeavor to manufacture a virtue out of necessity, by expressions of thankfulness for the miners' sake, hoping and praying very properly, that some of those "193 pound lumps," or even those of less weighty dimensions, will soon be brought this way.

Mercantile matters, and I might say traders of every description, are in a more discouraging condition than ever, and as a last alternative to regain their lost prosperity, the consignees have commenced reshipping back to the Atlantic cities. Several vessels laden with different kinds of merchandise, such as now gluts our market, have taken their departure, respectively, for Boston, New York and Philadelphia, since the 20th inst. The clipper ship Bald Eagle, now lying at California wharf, is taking in a full cargo of flour, and will leave during the present week for New York. The flour, I am told, after allowing the homeward freight and charges, will net in New York a considerable advance over and above the prices now ruling in this city! This is a sad commentary upon the avarice and duplicity of Eastern shippers, to whom we are almost indebted for the existing "hard times," and mercantile embarrassment. With them, however, will rest the brunt of battle. If they sustain themselves, well and good—if they fall, ditto. There are none here to sympatise in their adversity, for the same misfortunes which hover over them were intended to engulph us. Duplicate invoices have destroyed the reward of many an honest, enterprising Californian, but there is a prospect that hereafter by return shipments they will crush only the guilty hopes of their unprincipled authors.

The chief topic of conversation now on the tapis, relates to an extraordinary abuse of Judicial authority, committed on the night of the 17th inst. by Alexander Wells, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court. A party of rowdies on the eve of leaving to join Walker's force at Encenada, engaged in a disgraceful riot and outrage at Brown's Hotel, on Front street, near Davis. Officers were sent to make arrests, but they were ferociously attacked, and after a severe beating, obliged to retire; reinforcements were quickly furnished, and finally after a desperate conflict, in which two of the officers were seriously injured, the ring-leaders of the riot were arrested and safely lodged in the Station House, to await an examination next morning. The prisoners, it seems, were "on the shoulder," and had labored for the holy cause of party and partizans, therefore, had they friends. The latter were not idle, and successively made application to Marshal Seguine, Recorder Baker, and Mayor Garrison, for the release of their chums upon bail, offering any amount—but without avail. At this they became greatly enraged, and gathering in large numbers, threatened to effect the release at any hazard. The city official, however, stood firm, and finally the "Liberators" made a decent upon the residence of that immaculate Judge, Alexander Wells. His Honor, upon learning that the incarcerated were his political supporters, who had worked and drank at the polls for him, instantly took means to oblige his visitors. Accordingly, he sat down and wrote a peremptory order for the release of the rioters, taking no bail or obligation to appear next day and answer for their conduct. The order, of course was obeyed, and an hour afterward the honorable Judge, and his equally honorable acquaintances of the Station House, might have been seen in a low doggery, making a night of it.

The excitement on this subject has been tremendous, and at one time it was suggested to call the Vigilance Committee together immediately. Fortunately for the Judge it was not done. The feeling against Judge Wells is unanimous.

The Complimentary Dinner tendered to General Wool and Ex-Governor Foote, came off last Saturday night, and was numerously attended. It was a one-sided affair, however, having been gotten up more for the purposes of a party faction. The proceedings on the occasion show this to be a fact, and further that the Broderick interest was sustained, while President Pierce and all connected with his administration, were decried and denounced.

The Capital question has been once more decided, and before you receive this the Legislature will be in session at Sacramento, just in time to make a grand opening out on the Senatorial question. If good liquor is, as we are told, so potent as to cause the removal of our State Capital, it is to be hoped it will have a like influence in expediting legislative business.

In reference to the proposed Merced Canal, I will say a few words, though I have but ten minutes at command before the boat leaves. Men of capital in this city, whose names I am not yet at liberty to mention, are willing, and even anxious to engage in that enterprise, provided their efforts will be properly seconded by the citizens of Mariposa county. They tell me, and truly too, that there has not been as yet any public expression of popular will on the subject, and consequently no encouragement proffered to those who possessed the requisite means, and who would persevere to the completion of the project.

I sincerely trust the Mariposians will take action in this matter forthwith. Let a meeting be called, and the sense of the community be rightly understood; let a committee be appointed to obtain minute statistics in regard to the line, cost, and manner of constructing the work, and lastly, have every man subscribe for such an amount as he may be willing to contribute toward the "cause."

Let us see particularly the total amount of material aid we can raise at home, and then there are those who will put their shoulders to the wheel down here, and in less than two years, the Merced will be coursing through one of the richest, most populous, and most prosperous counties in the State.

The new steamer America, owned by Vanderbilt, arrived in port last night, 14 days from Panama, and 64 from N. York, running time. She is a large and handsome vessel, and will be quite a valuable acquisition to the Pacific steam marine.—She goes on a tour of pleasure to the Sandwich Islands next week. A. S. G.

COULTERSVILLE, March 1, 1854.

Messrs. Editors:—Things in this neighborhood have begun to look up amazingly, since the rains, and we may now confidently expect an increased and successful prosecution of the various branches of California industry for some time to come. As regards placer mining, I think our vicinity presents as cheering prospects for the working miner, as any portion of the Southern Mines; besides the old creek, with its ravines, branches, and gulches, all of which yield remunerative wages. We are at last to have the good qualities of Black Hill, (which was of yore the stamping ground of your Senior,) properly developed by the introduction of water. Messrs. Hawkins & Co. having constructed a substantial and capacious ditch, at an expense of upwards of $2000, to convey water from the Main and North branches of Maxwell's creek to the Hill, all parts of which can now be worked. It has always been supposed there were many placers on and around the Hill, which would "pay well," and from a few day's experience, I am led to think Black Hill will yet be "heard of." There are several parties making from eight to twenty-five dollars per day to the man, and all expect it to improve with their knowledge of the ground and vicinity. As operations proceed, I will continue to keep you advised of the result. In my next I will touch some upon the quartz operations in this highly favored portion of the Quartz county of California. Until then believe me, Yours &c, P. Q.

EVENING PARTY.—We had the pleasure of attending, on Wednesday evening, an agreeable party, given by Mr. Jamison and lady. The dancing continued until a late hour, and we enjoyed ourselves much. It was a delightful re-union.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—A fellow was arrested at Rabbit Creek, near Downieville, for attempting violence upon the person of a little girl—He was taken from the officers and whipped by the people.

BISHOP KIP.—This eminent Divine has accepted the Rectorship of Grace Church, San Francisco.

BADGES.—The San Francisco Public Ledger says that the police of San Francisco, may now be known distinctly by their new uniform—black eyes and bloody noses!

Serves them right, if they can't take a joke.

STABBED.—A Mexican woman named Manrita Lopez stabbed her husband with a butcher knife, in Sacramento, a few days since.

STATISTICS OF GREAT BRITAIN.—In 1851 there were 152 barracks, 716 workhouses 162 prisons, 127 lunatic asylums, 94 hospitals, and 507 asylums, in England and Wales. In the barracks there were 50,830 soldiers and in the work-houses 125,430 helpless paupers, or poor who receive indoor relief. The number of prisoners of all classes was 26,726; of insane patients in asylums, 18,14., and of persons in hospitals and other asylums 52,142

PERSONAL.—The charge preferred against us, that we have been subsidized by any party or individual, or are obligated by any pecuniary consideration in pursuing the course we have taken in regard to the senatorial election, is a villainous lie. And those who endorse the base assertion, after this denial, will consider themselves placed in the same light in our estimation.—San Joaquin Republican.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF SAN FRANCISCO.—The Evening Journal says: "The 9th quarterly report of the Superintendent of Public Schools has been made. Pupils in attendance during terms: boys, 1,454; girls 850. Receipts $11,861.47; disbursments, 11,355 80; leaving a ballance on hand of $6,67."

Mahomet's first wife, Kadyah, was at least forty when he, at the age of twenty-five, married her. Shakspeare's Ann Hathaway was seven years her senior. Dr. Johson's wife was literally almost double his age. The wife of Lord Herbert of Cherbury, was six or seven years older than her lord. Sir Thomas Moore's wife was also seven years older than her husband Howard, the philanthopist, at the age of twenty-five, married a first wife, who was then fifty-two. Mrs. Rowe, the authoress, was fifteen years older than Mr. Rowe. Rapel, the German de Stael, was about as much older. The Countess D'Ossoli (Miss Fuller) was nearly ten years her husband's senior. Jenny Lind, too, is said to be eight or ten years older than Herr Goldshmidt.

WASHINGTON FLAT, Feb. 21, 1854.

Messrs. Editors:—Perhaps it may not be uninteresting to some of your numerous readers, to learn something of the operation of the miners in this vicinity. In accordance with this supposition, and a promise to do so, I herewith forward to you, to be used at your discretion, a few items connected with the mining interest on this Flat. It lies on the north side of the Merced river, about one mile above Ridley's Ferry, is some 600 or 800 yards in length, and from 50 to 150 yards in breadth. The surface is from 30 to 75 feet above the present bed of the river, and the depth, from the surface to the ledge, varies from 10 to 60 feet, increasing as it runs from the river toward the hill, both becoming higher from the surface, and the declension of the ledge. All the mining that has been done upon it, until within some fourteen months, has been done by drifting and working upon the ledge, which has been somewhat extensive. I understand it was commenced in 1849, and continued at intervals for three successive seasons. About the middle of October 1852, two or three men came on the flat for the purpose of prospecting, to ascertain the practicability of bringing water upon it from Davis' Gulch, which empties its waters into the river at the head, and forms the eastern boundary of the flat. Their examination of it was satisfactory, and a company of four was immediately formed, operations were commenced forthwith, a house built, lumber sawed, &c., and a ditch sufficiently large to carry four sluice streams dug, one mile in length, mostly through slate, made tight by puddling; and washing for gold commenced on the 28th December, without hiring a days work. The first work in the way of mining was done where it had been drifted most, and consequently no dependence could be made for making much upon the ledge. For the first six or eight weeks very little was made above expenses, and no help employed—four men doing all that was done. At the expiration of that time, it commenced paying better, and from that time onward, until the water failed, which was about the middle of June last, including the expenses necessarily incurred from the commencement of operations, about $3,500 were expended for help and fixtures, leaving a handsome dividend to the shareholders as a reward for their toil. The amount of ground worked during the last season, was about 170 feet back from the river, from top to bottom from 20 to 35 feet deep, and 35 to 40 feet wide, and one side drift of 80 or 90 feet in length. The earth at the back end of the cut, does not pay as well as nearer the river, the ledge falling sometimes gradually, sometimes abruptly, and in the length of the cut probably falls ten feet. After the water failed, a drift was commenced at the back end of the cut and continued until it reached water in the old bed, a distance of 111 feet, the earth taken out paying but small wages; but after arriving at the old channel, and working in considerable depth of water, without being able to get nearer than within a foot of the ledge some very fine prospects were obtained. Owing, however, to the water coming in so fast, it was thought best not to go to the expense of sinking a shaft, getting pumps, &c., until another season.

Owing to the dry season continuing so late this year, work was not commenced with the sluice until the middle of January, since which time the claims have paid much better, for the time they have been worked, than the average of last year although work was commenced a-new at the bank.

Other companies are at work now, concerning which more anon.

Yours &c,

SCRIBELER.

AGRICULTURE—THE NEW COUNTY.

MERCED RIVER, March 1, 1854.

Messrs. Editors—From Phillip's Ferry on the Merced river to its mouth, is about thirty-five miles. Along this river, between these points, there is probably more than 15,000 acres of good arable land. Of this there are probably more than 1,600 acres under some sort of system of cultivation. Of this, about 500 acres are or will be sown with barley, and about 500 acres or more with wheat; and the remaining 300 acres in corn, potatoes, &c., will be under the process of cultivation the ensuing season.

A very fair estimate for the products of these 1,600 acres will be, for the barley, 30 bushels to the acre, making 24,000 bushels, or 1,500,000 pounds, which at 3 cents per pound, will amount to $36,000; wheat, at 30 bushels to the acre, there will be produced 15,000 bushels, or 600,000 pounds, which at 6 cents per pound, will amount to $36,000; averaging the remaining 300 acres at $100 each, they will amount to $30,000—making a sum total of $122,000; a very pretty little sum to be kept in circulation among ourselves, despite the San Francisco monopolists. The above estimate will fall below the mark in every material point.

In making the above calculation, it may appear as if I had contradicted myself when compared with the statements made in your first number; but what I said then I say now, and more.

Now, if we had any good manufacturing mills, with proper fixtures for cleaning grain of smut and dirt, we would ask no favors of New York or Chili. We have as good water power and as plenty of it as could be desired, and all that is wanting is the enterprise and capital to improve it.

There is some excitement among us upon the subject of a new County; but the more sober are not in favor of a division at the present time. But if a division must be had, they want the county lines to run somewhere near the lines of township No. 1, and so as to include it in the new county. Then if we are a county by ourselves, we shall not only include the 15,000 acres on the Merced river, but the land on the Mariposa, Bear and Burn's creeks, which would swell our annual agricultural income from $122,000 to at least $150,000, all of which snug little sum we would yearly draw from Mariposa and Tuolumne Counties. Now, since I think of it and reflect upon it, I don't know but we might well afford to be sliced.

LOWER MERCED.

[CORRESPONDENCE OF THE MARIPOSA CHRONICLE.]

MILLERTON, Feb. 24th, 1854.

Messrs. Editors:—As there will undoubtedly be innumerable false accounts relative to a shocking outrage committed upon this river, on the night of the 24d inst., allow me to give you the particulars of the affair as elicited at a Coroner's inquest held upon the body of an Indian who was murdered upon this river last evening.

Yesterday morning our citizens were thrown into a state of great excitement, by the report of a most brutal murder having been committed upon one of the most quiet and inoffensive of the San Joaquin Indians. T. C. Haller, an acting magistrate of this town, immediately took measures to have the matter investigated, and the villainous perpetrator brought to light. A Coroner's Jury was summoned, and the body of the Indian dug up, who had been buried by the Indians of the Ranchera. Upon examination it was found that there were upon him three wounds, either one of which was sufficient to cause death—one of them penetrating the heart.

The account given by the Indians of the affray was, that sometime during the night a man called Andrew McFarlane came to the Ranchera, and demanded an Indian woman for the night, at the same time endeavoring to force her to accede to his wishes, when the unfortunate Indian interfered to protect her. McFarlane then drew a large bowie knife and stabbed him, killing him instantly; then out of mere wantonness apparently, attacked another Indian, cutting him so severely that it is thought he will also die. The courageous bravo then took to his heels. In his flight, he dropped his hat and six-shooter. He went a few hundred yards to his camp, where he was staying with two other men, and told them that he had got into a difficulty with the Indians, and had cut his way out, and would be obliged to leave; and before any one knew any thing farther of the affair he had left for parts unknown. It would perhaps be proper to state that McFarlane has hitherto been a peaceable man, and those who knew him best are the most surprised and shocked at what has occurred, and which must render him infamous forever. During the evening previous to the murder, he had been drinking very freely, and was very much intoxicated—(which, among the chivalry of this place, is adopted as a cloak under cover of which they are in the habit of getting up the most disgraceful exhibitions of rowdyism, and afterwards if pressed to fight, express the utmost penitence and contrition for their offence, declaring that they are, if not the best, among the best fellows in the world, when they are sober.) It is to be hoped that this ruffian may be arrested and punished as he deserves, although there is at present but very little probability that he will be taken.

This case furnishes a very forcible exemplification of the demoralizing effect which the innumerable grog shops produce.

There is nothing farther of any especial interest in these parts. Miners as a general thing are doing moderately well. Some companies who are working upon "red banks," are making exceedingly good wages; the river at present, however, is too high to operate very successfully as a general thing.

The farmers on this river are carryng on their operations very energetically, and should the season prove favorable there will be an abundance of wheat raised upon this river, to supply the wants of its population. Messrs. Jordan & Co. contemplate the erection of a Grist Mill upon the river, a short distance from Millerton, which will be a vast advantage to the community, and amply repay these enterprising gentlemen for their outlay of capital; but I have already extended this letter much further than I intended.

Yours truly,

CITIZEN.

THE IRISH DIRECTORY.—At the Mitchel Festival in new York, Mr. J.P. Smyth, in replying to a toast, stated that the honor of rescuing Mitchel from bondage, belongs to the "Irish Directory," who employed him, Smyth, as an agent for that purpose, and used to that end the funds subscribed by Irishmen in this country to aid the struggle in which Mitchel and his compatriots were engaged in Ireland. This statement was corroborated by Mr. Robert Emmett. This secret has been remarkably well kept, in the face of the repeated and continued newspaper attacks upon the members of the Directory with respect to the distribution of the fund.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES.—At Exeter Hall London, the Rev. Dr. Cumming lectured, on the "Signs of the Times." He said, that the Prophet Daniel had prophesied 2,300 years would be the duration of Mahomedan power, but it did not follow that Russia would plant the cross on St Sophia. On the contrary, he thought that the 12,000,000 of Mahomedans might become Christians. The events of the year 1848 had been clearly alluded to in the prophecy, and he calculated that 1864 would bring about the fulfilment of the apocalyptic prophecies, and the commencement of a better age—"the good time coming."

MARIPOSA CHRONICLE.

[CORRESPONDENCE OF THE MARIPOSA CHRONICLE.]

OTHER SIDE OF JORDAN, March 2, '54.

Messrs. Editors: Being about to leave this world, and "go up in a balloon," I supposed that my parting benediction would be properly appreciated by you, and accordingly send it herewith—in a horn;—being fortunately able to avail myself of the identical team referred to by Mr. H——t, in the Legislature a year ago, when he introduced an amendment to a certain bill authorizing the purchase by the State of

"Four white horses to work on the lead,
To travel to the other side of Jordan."

And of which team, the celebrated "Josephus" was expected to form a component part! Like my "illustrious predecessor" McShasta, alias McDips, alias McCandles, (genuine adamantine,) I am in search of a people who can appreciate my disinterested sacrifices. I have adopted this resolution, after due consideration 'pro and con,' more particularly pro; but having learned that a distinguished military character had determined—"vi et armis," if necessary—to succeed the worthy gentleman who has been so industriously Wade-ing through and into the "floating capital," and "bribery investigation" questions, I became convinced that the chances were, for myself, so far removed, that even distance could lend no "enchantment to the view,"—in consequence of which, I have left your land, where time and distance are important considerations, and removed to a better, where the "wicked cease from troubling" us, viz: "The other side of Jordan" We are permitted to read all respectable newspapers, and as the Chronicle is one of that class, I hope to receive it as often as possible.

By the way, what has become of "Squibob?" Many fears are entertained that he has done something rash—perhaps gone filibustering—perhaps had a second attack of the "Brown Creeters," which so nearly proved fatal on a former occasion?

Hoping that the Chronicle may increase until it becomes large enough to "cover one all over like a blanket,"

I remain, "you'rn 'till deth."

NEW ROAD AND MINING.

MILLVILLE, March 2, 1854.

Messrs. Editors:—At the last term of the Court of Sessions, an order was made to open a County road from this place in the direction of the three Saw Mills, north of us, viz: Pioneer, owned by D White & Co., Millville; Moors, on the west branch of Sexton's Creek; and the Burchard & Wi[illegible] mill, on the east branch. This order will not only be of great advantage to the proprietors of these mills, their patrons, and the thousand miners in that vicinity, but will save a great deal of inconvenience and trouble to the Supervisors of Roads located at Mariposa, in levying road taxes upon the citizens of those valleys, as this new road will claim their services and money; and you can be assured that they are all able to pay or play in that direction, as their work and the dust which they take out show and speak for themselves. There is not a gulch or ravine on Sherlock's or Sexton's creeks which cannot be worked to good advantage. The new Saw Mill at Millville is nearly ready to put in operation.

Yours &c., RANGER.

PINO BLANCO, March 1, 1854.

Messrs. Editors:—About three miles west of the fine and flourishing village of Coultersville, is a beautiful valley, surrounded by lofty mountains, whose grand and picturesque appearance, contrasted with the level surface, orchard-looking groves, and garden-like shrubbery of the valley, renders the scene at once sublime and beautiful.

Well, this is the valley of "Pino Blanco," and a prettier place would be hard to find any where in Mariposa County. It is about two miles in circumference, the surface level or gently undulating, with many small ravines running through it, all of which contain the coveted and much sought oro; in fact every portion of the valley contains gold, and if the enterprising company that has lately brought water from Maxwell's creek to "Black Hill," shall see proper to extend their ditch and supply this place, I have no doubts but the whole valley can be worked to advantage.

Notwithstanding the different and various shades of color noticeable among our inhabitants, we are a sober, quiet peaceable, order-loving, law-abiding community; each one pursuing "the even tenor of his way," without producing even a ripple upon the passing wave of time, consequently cannot furnish any narrative of "thrilling interest" to grace a page in the history of "frail humanity."

Not being a practical politician of these "modern days," I do not consider myself well posted on political affairs; however, so far as the Senatorial election is concerned, the sentiment of the people in these "diggings" is decidedly adverse to an election at this session of the Legislature. "GUS."

CALIFORNIA GRAIN.—We have been shown a letter from Alvin Adams, Esq principal of the house of Adams & Co., dated Boston, Jan. 18th, 1854, in which he states that he has received a silver medal from the Massachusetts horticultural society, for specimens of California barley and wheat brought by him from California. The stalks were eight feet high, of superior quality, and came from the ranch of Jerome C. Davis, on Putah creek, Yolo county. The grain was not sent to be cast as anything to brag of, but Mr. Adams found it so far superior to any that was raised in that section, that he put it in the horticultural fair, and received the highest prize.—State Journal.

JUDGE WELLS.

This gentleman has rendered himself perfectly obnoxious in the eyes of honorable citizens of this State. His conduct is without a precedent. We make room for the card of Marshall Seguine, also signed by all the police of San Francisco. It is a just appreciation of Judge Well's conduct in the late riot in that city.

Occupying the official position that Judge Wells does, we would suppose, that he would assume a virtue he possesses not, and not pander his power for the plaudits of a band of reckless and drunken loafers, but act with some semblance of integrity, and regard for the welfare of society. We sincerely hope that this gentleman will reform, and not longer continue to be the cause of creating in the minds of all well disposed and well thinking people, a disgust for the highest tribunal in the State.

TO HIS HONOR MAYOR GARRISON: The Police officers of this city deem this a fitting opportunity to express, in plain terms, their feelings in regard to the late disgraceful riot. Ever since the organization of a Police force in this city, most of the actors in the late disturbance, and men of their calibre, have been a greater source of annoyance to that corps and the public, than all the other law-breaking populace put together. True, they have often been made to pay small fines, and as often bled their peculiar friends; but when a heavy fine has been imposed, the cases have been appealed, and the courts and attorneys in the upper spheres seem to have been mesmerized into quiet slumbers by the same peculiar friends of the mulcted.

The public and their officers have been set at defiance. Is it to be wondered at, then, if the Police, after having been beaten, abused, and struggling with drunken ruffians, should feel incensed at the conduct of Judge Wells in unlocking their prison doors at midnight, to turn them out upon an unguarded community? Whilst Policemen must stand by with folded arms and meekly receive the scoffs, the jeers, and threats of deadly vengeance of midnight brawlers?

If they afterwards see that midnight habeas corpus Judge, imbibing in a dram shop, festooned with the released rioters, and grog shop politicians, and listen to his Honor assert with an oath, "That he would not allow four or five rascally, thieving policemen, to arrest men and keep them confined all night; that he had the power and by G—d he meant to use it;" is it strange if they afterwards did not wish to appear before his Honor to give evidence, and probably be made puppets in a "solemn farce."

The Police appeal to your Honor, the public and the press. They are and ever have been willing to do their duty. They ask your Honor and the people to stand by them. They have sworn to support and try and execute the laws, and if sustained they will yet triumph, despite the jackalls of party, the self-styled "election makers."

Very respectfully, your obedient servants,

Capt. Hampton North, Asst. Capt. R. B. Monks, A. McKenzie, M. Kenney, R. McDougall, C. Warner, H. Darling, S. T. Tucker, F. A. Shrosler, G. M. Kenny, H. W. Talcott, J. M. Metz, E. J. Salsbury, J. W. MARIPOSA MARKET.

CHRONICLE OFFICE,
THURSDAY EVENING, March 2, 1854.

There has been considerable packing going on during the past week, although the quantity of goods sold has not been as large as the week before. The stock on hand is now reduced to a "filling up point," and unless we have arrivals of teams within a few days, prices must advance. The roads between here and Stockton are in bad condition for loaded teams, which has caused a slight advance in freights. The amount of goods on the road between here and Stockton, destined for this town is small. The following have been the ruling prices during the past week:

FLOUR.—Chile Flour, $10 per cwt.; American do, at $9 50 do.

CORN MEAL, $9 00 per hf. bbl.; fresh ground do, at $8 00 per cwt.

GRAIN.—Barley, a full supply, $5 00 per cwt.; Corn, $10 do.; Wheat, $10 do.; Oats, none in the market.

FRUITS.—Dried Apples, $16 per hf. bbl.; English Walnuts, $18 per cwt.; Raisins, ℔ box, $8@$9.; Pie Fruits, ℔ dozen, $8@$10.

MOLASSES.—New Orleans, $2 00 ℔ gallon; Steward's Sugar H. Syrup, $2 25 do.; Boston Syrup, $2 00 do.

POTATOES—Bodega, $7 00 per cwt.; Onions, $15 do.

PROVISIONS.—Clear Pork, $42 ℔ bbl.; do. do. hf. do., $23; Clear Bacon, $25 ℔ cwt.; Lard, in tins, 25c.; Butter, choice, $48 ℔ keg; Ordinary ditto, 30@35c. ℔ lb.; Cheese, first quality in tins, 40c. ℔ lb.; Rice, Carolina 12½c. do.; China do., $11 50 ℔ cwt.

SUGAR.—China No. 1, 16c. ℔ lb. do. No. 2, 14c. do.; Crushed do., $22 ℔ hf. bbl.; do. do. $42 ℔ bbl.

TEAS.—Imperial and Gunpowder Teas average from 80 @$1 00 ℔ lb. according to quality; Hyson, $1 00 do.

TOBACCO.—Grape Brand, 50c. ℔ lb.; Peach do., 65c. do.; Inferior brands, 40@45c. ℔ lb.

COFFEE.—Rio, Java and Costa Rica, 25c. ℔ lb.

PRESERVED MEATS.—Oysters, in 2 lb cans, $14@$15 ℔ dozen; Lobsters, do. do. $13@$14 do.; Sardines, $7 50 ℔ dozen.

BARRETT & SHERWOOD

BEG leave to announce the arrival of a celebrated LAPIDARY ARTIST, engaged especially in the East for them. The machinery for this exquisite branch of their business is of the most improved and perfect description, being ordered for their establishment here, without any regard to cost.

They are now able to cut and test all kinds of precious stones and gems; no longer therefore, need the curious treasures of our soil and mines remain unregarded and undeveloped. Quartz rock mixed with gold, when cut and polished, makes the most beautiful and unique style of Jewelry. Rings, Pins, Studs, Seals, Cane Heads, Coat Buttons, and a hundred different things, can now be manufactured from it, that for beauty of design and elegance of finish would be highly appreciated in the Eastern States, rendering them, above all other souvenirs, the most superior for home presents. Call and see them at BARRETT & SHERWOOD'S

Montgomery street, one door from Commercial street, San Francisco.

N. B.—Quartz mixed with gold, suitable for cutting, purchased at from one to five hundred per cent., above the net gold value. feb10

IMPORTANT TO SETTLERS—PRE-EMPTION CLAIMS.

The following letter from Colonel Gift upon the subject of Pre-emption Claims, commends itself to our agricultural friends throughout the State, as a matter of the first importance in securing a title to land:

REGISTER'S OFFICE, BENICIA,
January 20, 1854.

D. J. STAPLES—Sir:—I have been shown a letter from you to Major Stemmons, asking what you should do in reference to pre-emption claims. The law requires that you should have built a house on the land before the third day of March, 1854, on unreserved lands, and on surveyed lands any time before it is offered for sale. Now, sir, yours is unsurveyed land, and will be for six or nine months yet. You have nothing to do but send to this office a description of your land, making your beginning corner, and running with the points of the compass East and West, North and South, and half mile each line, or 40 chains, which square makes 160 acres of land, and if laid off that way, it must be run through at right angles, and you can take the legal subdivisions and by that means cover your quarter section, and all pre-emptors who are on their lands on or before the 3d day of March next, will hold them, and I do believe the Congress of the United States will extend it further, but you and your neighbors are all required to send your declaratory statements to this office as soon as practicable, and let them be placed on file. It can be done by agent.

Your Representatives, if authorized, can put on file declaratory statements for San Joaquin county, with any gentlemen appearing here until the day arrives to prove up. Then the pre-emptor must appear in person and take the oath required by law, and prove up by some other witness. These are some of the most essential facts to be observed by pre-emptors.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

WM W. GIFT, Register.

We are happy to state that Wm. B. Taylor, a resident of Mariposa county, has opened an agency at Benicia for the purpose of attending to this branch of business, and any letter addressed to him will receive prompt attention. The following is his Circular to the public:

IMPORTANT TO SETTLERS ON PUBLIC LANDS IN CALIFORNIA.

The undersigned having located himself permanently at Benicia, offers his services to such Settlers as are desirous of taking the initiatory steps procuring a bona-fide title to a Pre-emption Claim, (One Hundred and Sixty Acres,) which it is important should be on file as early as possible, at the Register Office, at Benicia, as much trouble and perhaps litigation may be saved thereby.

The following form should be observed by parties in declaring their intention to claim a pre-emption:

I of being the head of a family, or a singe man over twenty-one years of age, as the case may be, a citizen of the United States, have, on the day of A. D., 185 , settled and improved the Quarter of Section, No. in Township No. , of Range No. in the district of lands subject to sale at the Land Office, at Benicia, and containing acres, which land has not yet been offered at public sale, and thus rendered subject to private entry; and I do hereby declare my intention to claim the said tract of land as a pre-emption right, under the provisions of the Act of 3d March, 1853.

Given, under my hand, this day of A. D., 185

Signed, in the presence of }

The great distance of a majority of settlers from the Land Office at Benicia, will render it exceedingly difficult and expensive to them to take the first steps toward securing a title to a Pre-emption Claim, and it is in view of this fact, that the undersigned tenders his services to actual settlers, knowing that thereby a great expense can be saved to them, and feeling assured, at the same time, that the duties of his position will be discharged with fidelity, and to the entire satisfaction of all parties.

FIFTEEN DOLLARS,

sent by Express, or otherwise, to my address, at Benicia, (Settlers in the same neighborhood can club together and send in one package,) will cover all expenses at the Land Office, together with my fees, and entitle such person to a Certificate, declaring his intention to settle the said Pre-emption Claim, signed by the Register, a copy of which is also placed on file in the Land Office.

ORIGINAL DEFECTIVE

MARIPOSA CHRONICLE.

Our bright little sea-nymph asks where beauty dwells. If she doesn't know, every body that sees her face or reads her poetry does. It dwells in both.—Louisville Journal.

WHERE DOES BEAUTY DWELL?

What art thou, Beauty? Help me trace
Thy nature and thy dwelling place.
Say art thou false, or art thou true?
Art thou alone for earthly view?
Is thy strong magic all ideal,
Or is thy essence something real?
Art thou a dream of eye and heart
That will like other dreams depart,
Or wilt thou yet, a mortal flower,
Expand in an immortal bower?

Ah well I know, thou hast thy throne
Within the gentle heart alone,
Where purity and love entwine,
Twin angels at the spirit's shrine.
The lovliest one may droop and fade,
The brightest form in death be laid,
The mighty tyrant Time may fly,
And steal the charms of cheek and eye,
But still if beauty fills the soul,
It will defy Time's dark control.
The beauty that will still survive,
When earthly charms shall cease to live,
Is dwelling in the heart's deep core
With truth and love forevermore.

J. F. BLYTHE.
A. M. WYNN.

ABD-EL-KADER.—Abd-el-Kader lives a very retired life at Broussa, in the bosom of his family, and occupies himself with the education of his children. His principal enjoyment, in the most part of the day and through the most part of the night, is study and poetry, for which he has a decided penchant. He carefully avoids any noise, and Broussa pleases him so much as a place of residence, that he has decided on purchasing a farm in the neighborhood, in order to give employment to himself and persons who compose his numerous suite. He is disgusted with grandeur, and now prefers to live retired and tranquil, and to enjoy on his new estate the pleasures of a country life and study. The Emir is expected to receive from Damascus two magnificent horses, of the famous Arab breed called Nedjdi, which are intended for the Emperor Napoleon, to whom they have been already offered, and accepted by his Majesty.

A COMPETENT MANAGER.—Some years ago, a theatrical manager, well known here and hereabouts, finding his business slacking somewhat, was bethinking himself of some way to revive it. He had been playing comedies and other unexciting pieces, to which the people, with singular perversity would not come. Something "more toploftical" was needed, in the Manager's opinion, but what should it be?

At last a bright thought struck him.

"We must have Richard the Third," said he to his stage manager; "that always brings 'em! Let's have Richard the Third to-morrow night."

"All very well, sir," was the reply; "but who'll play Richard?"

"Who'll play Richard! anybody can play Richard! Snooks 'll do it, as well as any body. Put up Snooks for Richard."

"But Snooks never played the character in his life, my dear sir!"

"What of that? It aint long, and Snooks can study it in a day, easy. Besides, you know, there's Jones to play the part of Iago, his best character, you know."

This sounds very much like a bouncer. But it is said to be a veritable fact. Iago in Richard the Third!

WATER PRIVILEGES—LEGAL ITEM.—The following opinion has been delivered by the District Court of Placer county:

1st. That a water Company first diverting the water of a stream from its natural channel to a distant point for sale, obtained a prior right to divert and use the water, as against any other Water Company subsequently seeking to divert such stream for the same purpose.

2d. A person having settled or subsequently settling upon and bordering on such stream, for mining or agricultural purposes, has a superior right to use the water of such stream on his land for those purposes, as against such Water Company, and for that purpose might prevent the flowing into their ditches.

3d. A person settled upon land for agricultural purposes, which does not border upon such stream, has no right to divert the water to his land or claim, where a Water Company had previously diverted the same.

Punch says he once saw a father knock down his boy, and thought it the most striking picture of "sundown" he ever beheld.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PREMIUM PLOWS.

MESSRS. E. L. BEARD, WM. NEELY Thompson, and J. Bryant Hill, the Committee appointed to award a silver plate to the manufacturer of the best California-made plow on exhibition at the Agricultural Fair of Warren & Son, have awarded the plate to Messrs L E Morgan & Co. The plate is valued at $100. The following is the report of the Committee:

The undersigned having been appointed a committee to examine the several plows presented for exhibition and premiums at Warren & Son's State Fair, having attended to that duty, submit the following report:

The several plows offered for exhibition and premiums were as follows:

L E Morgan & Co—Steel Peoria Plows, viz:

Clipper No 6, a highly finished plow, with wheel and coulter, cutting 14-inch furrow; Clipper No 16, wheel and coulter, 16-inch furrow; Clipper No 18, wheel and coulter, 18 inch furrow; Clipper No 20, wheel and coulter, 20-inch furrow.

Peoria Plain or Prairie-land Plows:

No 5, fine steel and finished, cutting 10-inch furrow; No 5 1-2, same style and quality, cutting 12-inch furrow; No 6, same character, cutting 14-inch furrow; No 7, same, 16-inch furrow.

L E Morgan and Co exhibited in the Hall a most superb and highly finished clipper or prairie plow, cutting a 16-inch furrow, reflecting great credit upon the workmen in the several departments of their manufactory in the construction of their plows; also a most beautiful model, a miniature plow, that was exhibited upon the table in the Hall, and attracted much attention.

There were also cast plows from the celebrated manufactories of Ruggles, Nourse and Mason of Worcester, Mass, John Mayher and Co of New York, and others, consisting of deeptillers, side-hill, sub-soil, centre-draft, etc, etc, but as these were not put in competition, the committee can only say that for cast iron plows, they hold their usual high rank.

The plows manufactured in this State being the only ones entitled to premiums, and this being the principal duty of the committee, they procceeded to the examination.

A wrought steel plow from Stockton had been exhibited, but was withdrawn from competition.

The various steel plows from Messrs Morgan and Co, were such as to give pleasure in their examination, and the committee find them manufactured in the most satisfactory manner, and most creditable to the proprietors. From the abundant testimony before the committee, they are satisfied of their being the very best plows, and most thoroughly made, and plows that give greater satisfaction than any other steel plow in the country.

The committee, in view of the facts before them of the high merit and most excellent reputation of their real worth, award to L E Morgan and Co, the premium prize, a silver plate, valued at $100.

The committee hope that with another year, many new varieties of plows, adapted to all forms of culture, the side-hill, the sub-soil and deeptiller, will be manufactured by our citizens, and thus retain at home the wealth of our State for the real benefit of our people.

Winn's Branch Confectionery

Ice Cream and Ladies' Refreshment Saloon.
Cor. of Washington and Montgomery sts.
ENLARGED DECEMBER 31, 1853

THIS IS THE ONLY FASHIONABLE Resort for Ladies and Gentlemen in the State. It may not be necessary at this time to repeat that no liquors of any description are sold at either of WINN's establishments, as all must have learned the fact from former advertisements or personal observation. We are proud to add, and to the great credit of our citizens be it said, that FIVE THOUSAND of the most intelligent, high-minded, enterprising people in the State of California, take their meals daily at these places, without Brandy, Wine, Beer or Cider.—Hundreds of Ladies, we are happy to say, are among this number; and if they—the Ladies—will hereafter patronise no house where intoxicating drinks are sold, a social reform will be brought about in this State, in five years, that will be felt throughout the 'heathen' as well as the 'civilized' world. But we must leave the subject for want of time to say more at present. We will in our future advertisements have a word to say in defence of the principles we advocate, having raised the Flag of Temperance on board the noble ship Fountain Head and her younger sister the Branch, we are bound to stand by it; and as we sail through the Gulf of Dissipation, Misery and Death, we'll stretch forth our hands and rescue all that have fallen from the platform of rectitude and are wallowing in the depths beneath, while the loving wife, the mother, or darling little ones stand half frantic with anguish, as they behold from day to day the object of their fondest love sinking deeper and deeper in the abyss of ruin. WINN'S FOUNTAIN HEAD.

The Fountain Head! The Fountain Head!!
Winn's Fountain is the place,
Where old and young, the grave and gay,
Join in Life's cheerful race.
They with accord are rushing by,
And for the Fountain haste,
Their Breakfast, Dinner, Supper, too,
Are always to the taste.
'Tis there they find the choicest meals
Our market e'er affords,
Served up in latest style that's known,
All smoking on the boards.
Steaks and stews and vegetables rare,
And butter sweet as cream;
Rolls, doughnuts, cakes, and fresh fruit pies,
Well fit for England's Queen.
The coffee, too, so clear and hot,
Prepared of Java best,
Served up with cream and sugar white,
Is drank with hasty zest.
Winn's Fountain Head hath viands choice—
All that is rare and good;
None can surpass its ample store,
Nor rich and varied board.
This fact, our robust Aldermen
Do every day attest,
That at Winn's Fountain Head and Branch,
They're always suited best.
Then, old and young, both grave and gay,
Let's for the Fountain aim—
The Fountain Head! The Fountain Head!!
And choicest meals obtain.

REMOVAL.
DR. J. C. YOUNG,

HAS removed his office from 226 1-2 Dupont street to the corner of Montgomery and California streets, opposite the Banking House of Page, Bacon & Co., where he will be happy to consult with his former patrons, and treat scientifically and with discretion, all those who may require the services of a physician. The success of Dr. Young since his advent in this State, has been without a parallel, and he hopes by continued and untiring application to his profession, to remove from the public mind that lack of confidence which has so unhappily existed in regard to the medical profession in the State of California.

P. S.—All letters enclosing $10 will receive immediate attention. Direct box 735, Post Office, San Francisco.

N. B.—All papers in the State will please insert as special notice the above, for one month, and send bill to J. C. Young, M. D. dec4-tf

DR. J. C. YOUNG,
OF SAN FRANCISCO.

READ AND REFLECT.
"If there is a hereafter,
(And that there is, conscience uninfluenced,
And suffered to speak out, tells every man,)
Then it is an awful thing to die,
More horrid yet to die by one's own hand,
Self-murder—name it not!
Shall Nature, swerving from her earliest dictate,
Self preservation, fall by its own act?
Forbid it, Heaven."

THE indulgence in secret practices is the most certain, though not always the most immediate and direct avenue to destruction. Physicians of all ages have been most unanimously of opinion that the loss of one ounce of the seminal secretions, by unnatural aid or emissions, weakens the system more than the abstraction of forty ounces of blood. One of the FIRST writers on medical jurisprudence states that three-fourths of the insane owe their malady to such abuse.

How important, then, it is—for every one having the least cause to suspect any trouble in that way, should attend to it immediately; even one single occurrence should be sufficient to cause doubt, and much more so if the person had ever indulged in the soul-killing habit. The treatment pursued by the justly celebrated Dr. J. C. Young, in cases of seminal weakness, impotency, sterility, nervous debility, and paralysis, (the last is the most dangerous, and when it once occurs, is incurable,) is surpassed by any physician in the country. It is the same as that followed by him for years, under the guidance of the world-renowned Record of Paris, and Acton of London. Dr. Young's office is at 226 1-2 Dupont street, San Francisco, California, where he can be consulted upon that and all other private diseases, with the utmost confidence and secresy. Dr. Young will warrant a perfect and permanent cure, or make no charge.

N. B.—Letters enclosing $10 will receive prompt attention. The doctor's time being so much taken up that he cannot attend to letters unless paid for it.

P. S.—Apartments privately arranged.

A CARD.

FROM Dr. J. C. Young's Private Medical Office.—TO THE AFFLICTED.—In this age of progress, when science is developing itself in such a manner as to appear almost miraculous, everything in common place is looked upon as not worth notice. In view of this fact, Dr. Young, (at 226 1-2 Dupont street,) has concluded to leave the beaten track hitherto pursued by most scientific physicians, (that of waiting for the public to find you out alone,) and publish to the world, as much as may be, his knowledge of the healing art, to let those who are in need of assistance know where they can find relief,—without fear of being imposed upon.

In continuation of this object, Dr. Young would say that for the past ten years he has pursued the practice of medicine in one of the largest cities of the United States, with the highest success, and that his standing as a physician is without reproach, having at one time been lecturer at the University of Pennsylvania on venerial diseases, &c.

Upon all these considerations, Dr. Young has confidence in introducing himself to the public, knowing that they will sustain well earned merit.

The following are a few of the many testimonials, which have appeared in the public journals the last few years:

[From the Boston Medical Journal.]

Although we are opposed to the system of advertising, for good and sufficient reasons, still we deem it but justice to say that Dr. Young is one of the most industrious and indefatigable votaries of the medical science in the United States.

[From Professor Jackson.]

The subscriber is personally acquainted with Dr. Young, and has seen much of his practice, and can bear testimony to his merits as a practitioner.

[From the New York Herald.]

The eminence of this distinguished gentleman in his profession, and the very extended opportunities possessed by him for the observation of venereal disease, makes his services invaluable to those afflicted with the above complaints.

MEDICAL ADVICE.

DR. J. C. Young, who has become so celebrated for the thousands of cures which he has performed on old, chronic, mercurial, syphilitic, and all private diseases, without mercury, is consulted daily at his office, up stairs, No. 226 1-2 Dupont street, between Washington and Jackson, from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. A cure guaranteed or no pay.

Dr. J. C. Young has probably had more practice in venereal diseases than any other physician in California. He cures all the most aggravated cases of this disease, and mild ones he removes in from two to five days. The doctor has for many years, been known as the most eminent and successful physician in the United States, and what is more important to the patient, he always effects a speedy and permanent cure.

Travelers, seamen, miners and others, who wish to be cured without mercury, hindrance from business, or exposure to friends, should apply to him as soon as possible, and a perfect cure will be guaranteed in all curable cases. Recollect the name and number, Dr. J. C. Young, 226 1-2 Dupont street, up stairs, a few doors from Washington.

Office open from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M.

CONSTITUTIONAL DEBILITY.

OR SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Young addresses those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgences in that secret and solitary habit which ruins the body and mind, unfitting them for either business or society. The following are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: weakness of the back and limbs, in pain the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervousness, irritability, derangement of the digestive functions, general debility, symptoms of consumption, &c.

Mentally the fearful effects on the mind are more to be dreaded. Loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, love of solitude, timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

All persons who are afflicted with any of the above symptoms should not fail to call on Dr. Young, and be at once restored to perfect health. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately, and save yourself from the dreadful and awful consequences of this terrible malady.

WEAKNESS OF THE ORGANS
immediately cured and full vigor restored.

For sale as above, the celebrated French Lunar Pills, these pills are now acknowledged by the medical fraternity to be the only safe, mild and efficacious remedy to be depended upon in long standing cases of suppression, irregularity, or stopping of the functions of nature, the neglect of which is the source of such deplorable effects on the female frame.

N. B.—These pills are highly celebrated as a preventive.

PRIVATE MEDICAL OFFICE.

HUNDREDS of those who have contracted disease are disappointed of a cure by not calling on DR. YOUNG at first. He will forfeit any sum if he fails to cure any case that may come under his care, no matter how long standing and afflicting, such as ulcers, tumors, nodes, bunches, pimples on the face and body, pains in the bones and joints, wakefulness, trembling, copper-colored sores, wasting of the bones, emaciation, loss of appetite, strength and flesh, sores in the nose and ears, loss of hair, weak eyes, itching humors, &c., &c. Many persons, after being relieved of all external appearances of private disease, suppose themselves cured, but after a few months find they are troubled with various symptoms which they never had before, and which they find it impossible to relieve.

To all who are afflicted in this way, Dr. Young would particularly recommend a trial of his skill. The symptoms with which you are troubled are caused by taints in the blood, which sooner or later will destroy your health and happiness. No person who has ever had an attack of any private complaint should fail to consult Dr. Young, and take a few bottles of his invaluable purifying medicine, as they can rest assured that their blood is in a perfectly pure and healthy condition, and that every trace of disease is removed from the system.

Recent cases cured in from two to five days, without change of diet or hindrance from business, or no charge.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

DR. J. C. YOUNG, who is celebrated for curing all private complaints of both sexes, has discovered a remedy for the cure of old, long standing cases of gonorrhœa and gleets, which he has tried in more than one hundred cases, successfully, many of which had baffled the skill of eminent physicians for years; and in not one single case has it failed, nor can it ever fail, as the nature of the remedy is such that it strikes at the root of the complaint, and eradicates it completely in a few days. New cases cured in an incredibly short space of time, without change of diet or hindrance from business.

N. B.—A permanent cure guaranteed to all in the shortest possible time, or no pay will be taken.
